

Flicks in the Sticks at Brilley Village Hall

Thursday 15th October: Emma (cert 15) 2.30.p.m.

Anya Taylor-Joy revels in the role of the handsome, clever heroine with a sadistic streak in this amiable adaptation of Jane Austen's great romcom

Thursday 29th October: Official Secrets (cert 15) 7.30.p.m.

The gripping true story of Katharine Gun, whose job at GCHQ involves routine handling of classified information. Until on the eve of the Iraq war she receives a memo that reveals a dubious intelligence operation. A woman of principles she feels she can't stand by and watch the world be rushed into an illegal war. She leaks the memo to the press, exposing a vast political conspiracy, and putting herself and her family directly in harm's way. Anchored by a fiery central performance from Kiera Knightley, this pacey, powerful, engaging thriller is a pertinent reminder that our world needs everyone to act according to their principles.

Thursday 12th November: Little Women(cert 15) 2.30.p.m.

Greta Gerwig brings the entire March family to life like never before in a respectful but bracingly current version that is frequently funny, charming and heart-warming. It is never about anything other than the journey to adulthood of four sweet, clever young women, and in this sweeping, musical, romantic and grounded retelling, it is a delight to travel with them.

Thursday 26th November: Animals (cert 15) 7.30.p.m.

A vibrant study of female friendship based on Emma Jane Unsworth's 2014 novel. Laura, an aspiring, self-doubting writer and her anarchic best friend Tyler share a flat in Dublin. They live to party, with drink, drugs and general debauchery infusing their days and with their careers and personal lives largely on hold. But when Laura falls in love, her new romance highlights flaws in their friendship that force them to re-consider their shared and separate futures.

Unconventional, unruly and rich, with excellent performances and a sharp, insightful and witty script, Animals it has received glowing reviews.

Thursday 10th December: Military Wives (cert 15) 2.30.p.m.

Military Wives centers on a group of women from different backgrounds whose partners are away serving in Afghanistan. Faced with their loved ones' absences, they come together to form the very first military wives choir, helping each other through some of life's most difficult moments, and quickly find themselves on an international stage. Kristin Scott Thomas and Sharon Horgan star in this feel-good crowd-pleaser inspired by true events.
